WILL CONSULT DIRECTORS ON NEW PLAN HERE

The Adams County Board of School Directors took steps at its November meeting Monday evening to make sure that every school director in the county will have an opportunity to give his views on the school reorganization plan to be developed for the county by next May 31.

The county board, under the new state school reorganization law, must submit a county plan to Harrisburg on or before next July 1.

However, before the plan is sent to Harrisburg, the county board must notify county school districts of the adoption of the new plan and give them a 30-day period to take exceptions to it before it is submitted to Harrisburg.

SERIES OF MEETINGS

The five-member county board of school directors Monday evening directed the county superintendent's office to get in touch with school district administrators throughout the county to set up a schedule of district meetings when representatives of the county board and the county superintendent of schools can confer with the local school directors about the problems involved in developing the new county plan.

County board members pointed out that "there is no county plan now that we will be trying to sell to the local school directors. We are going to them to learn their views on the type of plan which will be best for Adams County." After everyone has been heard, the county board has the responsibility under the new law to adopt a county reorganization plan and seek state Board of Education approval of it.

The discussion Monday evening indicated that the new law makes the county plan problem more complicated than a year ago when a two-district county plan was proposed under terms of the now-repealed Act 561.

HAVE WIDE CHOICE

Under the new law the county could become a single school district or be divided into as many as six school districts with a number of possible combinations between those two extremes.

County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson and his assistant, George B. Inskip, and three members of the county board were in Harrisburg last week for a briefing on the new school reorganization law.

The new state law gives school districts the right to appeal from decisions of the county board on the county school reorganization plan.

SCOUTS ASKED TO ASSIST IN DISTRICT MEET

Boy Scout Troop 79 of St. James Lutheran Church held a discussion on the death of President Kennedy as part of its meeting Monday evening at the church.

Other business included a discussion by Assistant Scoutmaster George Jones on "Hiking Methods." Scoutmaster Allan Dubbs asked volunteers to assist in the presentation of a program this evening at the Black Walnut Boy Scout District Round Table at 7:30 o'clock in the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Dubbs said members are needed to speak and demonstrate outdoor activities, hiking skills and methods, silent signals, water purification, clothing and equipment, safety and sanitation, and a special presentation of Patrol Spirit. Assisting the youths in the presentation will be Leonard Patterson, Richard Spangler Jr., Walter B. Powell, assistant Scoutmaster Jones and Scoutmaster Dubbs.

At a committee meeting held at the same time as the Scout meeting the committee, headed by Chairman M. I. Bergdale voted to start a sale of clothes hangers with the profit from the sale of each package of three hangers being credited to the Scout who sells it. The funds so raised may be used by the Scout for any equipment he wishes or to pay his week's encampment at Camp Tuckahoe next summer.

Plans were made for camping trips by the 37 members of the troops to two different cabins during the winter month.

STOCKS STAGE STRONG RALLY

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market launched a strong rally today upon reopening after being closed for the funeral of President Kennedy.

Trading was heavy and the New York Stock Exchange ticker tape lagged behind floor transactions.

Brokers reported a tremendous accumulation of orders to buy stocks.

The surge to buy was in sharp contrast to the panicky selling that followed word of Kennedy's assassination Friday afternoon. At that time prices plunged and exchanges were closed early.

Opening of trading in many key issues was delayed until buy and sell orders could be matched.

Chrysler advanced $3.25 to $82. Other gains included General Telephone $1.25 to $29, Standard Oil (New Jersey) $1.62 to $69 and Texaco $2.25 to $65.25.

LIQUID FUEL TAX FUND TO PAY VIEWERS

The Adams County commissioners this morning took advantage of a new law which permits the county's road viewers to earn more money but, at the same time, cuts off the expense of the viewers from the county's general fund.

The commissioners passed the appropriate resolution which permits the road viewers to be paid $15 a day for their services, with the amount to be paid from the liquid fuel fund.

Previously the viewers received $10 a day and the amount was paid out of the general funds of the county. Since the liquid fuel fund can be used only for designated items such as county aid or bridge purposes, the decision to allow it to be used for the viewers' pay relieves the general fund of that burden. The liquid fuel fund comes from a return by the state of some of the tax on gasoline.

TO MEET NEW BOARD

This afternoon the commissioners visited the Zepp's and Gillian bridges now under construction and visited several properties for assessment purposes.

At this morning's meeting in the courthouse, the commissioners approved the placing of new plank on the Roth's Mill and Zeigler Mill bridges in Butler Twp. after Butler Twp. supervisors met with the commissioners to report the need for such work.

Plans were made for meetings with the new board of commissioners on December 26 for county purposes and January 2 on the institution district matters.

This week's meeting was held today instead of Wednesday because of the Thanksgiving holiday coming up.

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN FRIDAY

Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive in Gettysburg Friday evening at 7 o'clock to turn on the lights in the town's Christmas decorations.

But it looks like he may have to do it without music.

Ralph Will, chairman of the Retail Merchants committee for the Christmas lights, said this morning he was "seeking desperately" for a band to accompany Santa from the high school to the square.

BANDS NOT AVAILABLE

Will said that when he saw the Gettysburg Senior High School Band about the annual trip with Santa, it was learned that the period marks one when the band's uniforms are being cleaned and thus the band is "out of commission" as far as playing in the Santa parade.

But, Will said he was told, "there will be no difficulty, the Junior High School Band will be glad to play."

Will said another problem has prevented the Junior band from playing. A dance is scheduled and the youngsters want to go to it.

Next step, Will said, was to start calling for other high school bands.

TO MEET KIDDIES

Up to 10:30 this morning he had had no success. Bands were either engaged otherwise or they had turned down other communities with the same request and did not feel they should now accept such an engagement here.

Anyway, Will said, Santa will make his way, probably by fire truck, to Lincoln Square Friday night at 7 o'clock and will turn on the lights.

Thanks to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, he will then go to Santa's Shanty on the square and meet with the children.

Jackie Places Sprig Of Flowers On Grave Of Her Late Husband At Midnight

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The day for Jacqueline Kennedy had been a long and crushing one. But shortly before midnight she slipped out of the White House and rode through the darkness to place a sprig of flowers on her husband's new grave.

An eternal flame—placed at the head of the assassinated president's grave at her request—flickered on the silent hillside. Her brother-in-law, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, was at her side. Only hours earlier, world dignitaries had crowded the area during graveside rites for the fallen leader.

At night, the two stood alone. After 10 minutes they went back to the executive mansion.

NEW WAY OF LIFE

Some of Mrs. Kennedy's plans for the future may be made known today, according to White House press secretary Pierre Salinger. She must seek a new way of life for herself and her two children.

Among the foremost questions are how long will she remain at the White House, where will she make her new home and what will become of the White House school she set up for daughter Caroline and some 20 other children.

Mrs. Kennedy, a widow at 34, never sought nor relished the public role she came to play as

JFK MEMORIAL MEETING HELD BY DEMOCRATS

A commemorative program honoring the late President John F. Kennedy was held Monday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Democratic Women's Club at the Adams Electric Co-operative Building.

The president, Mrs. Marie Harbaugh, told the members "We are all full of remorse and perhaps even a sense of personal guilt that this deed (the assassination of the President) could happen in a supposedly civilized and Christian nation."

She urged the members to dedicate themselves "to a better moral and spiritual understanding of our fellow man. The people of Adams County with Gettysburg with its traditions as historical background should set an example that will be worthy of note by the entire country."

TO ELECT LATER

She added, "Nothing could have shocked the people of this country out of their apathy more quickly than this needless taking of human life."

Mrs. Edna Seeringer read the third chapter of Ecclesiastes which she said was reported as the late President's favorite chapter from the Bible. CHANGE PLANS FOR COUNTY'S SCHOOL BOARD CONVENTION

The Adams County Board of School Directors at its November meeting Monday evening:

Voted to change the upcoming annual convention sessions at Littlestown December 12 from the usual all-day schedule to a late afternoon and evening session.

Accepted a resignation and filled the vacancy in the special education teaching staff at Eisenhower Elementary School here.

Authorized the county superintendent's office to conduct a survey to gather facts preliminary to the establishment of an area technical school in Adams County.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS

The change in convention schedule, board members said, is an effort to make it possible for more directors to attend the annual convention when school reorganization and area technical schools will be discussed and three positions on the county board will be filled.

For years, some directors have found it impossible to attend convention sessions held during a weekday morning and afternoon.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Thelma Rae Wagner, teacher of the primary special education class at Eisenhower School, effective at the end of this semester.

Mrs. Eunice M. Boden, Gardner, a Bloomsburg State College graduate who formerly taught in the Gettysburg Elementary Schools, was elected to fill the vacancy at a salary of $5,000 per year. She has had some post graduate work in special education and has substituted for special ed teachers here.

County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson told the board members that resolutions and nominating committees will meet this evening to prepare their reports for the county convention in Littlestown.

The county board gave approval to a revised budget for the special education program in the county for the second half of the current school year. The budget was revised downward by $4,000 because the board has not been able to fill a position of teacher for the visually handicapped.

TO DISTRIBUTE BOOKLETS TO SCHOOL PUPILS

Gettysburg Kiwanis Club Monday evening made plans to distribute 1,700 copies of a booklet entitled "You and the Law" to the students in the Seventh to Twelfth Grades. The booklet was made available through Kiwanis International. Distribution will be made to the pupils by the school authorities.

Other business at Monday evening's meeting of the club in the Lamp Post Tea Room included a decision to sponsor "The Wally Taber Safari Saga" January 2

TELEVISION AUDIENCE HAD CHOICE SEATS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television's fine coverage of a national tragedy continued through the final chapter Monday bringing to mourning Americans an intimate picture of the funeral services for their dead leader.

It was a day of solemn beauty and grandeur with a measured formality that somehow was soothing and comforting after the hectic days that preceded it. Television cameras were in front rows during all the ceremonies, at the Capitol, the church, and at Arlington National Cemetery so that millions of distant Americans were able to see more than the people actually on the scene.

WENT TO RECEPTION
Later, we even were privileged to look into President Johnson's reception for the foreign heads of states and other visiting dignitaries.

The three networks spent the early evening showing edited versions of the day's ceremonies. CBS stayed with recapitulations of the news all evening. But NBC and ABC, as if to underline the fact that John F. Kennedy now belongs to history, turned their attention to President Lyndon B. Johnson. Both showed biographical programs, hastily patched together but interesting just the same.

Regular programming was resumed this morning, but there will be a number of switches and postponements of scheduled shows in the next few days. While news staffs of the three major networks worked around the clock on the Kennedy story, executives and staff members concerned with network entertainment programs were carefully inspecting scheduled programs for themes plot lines or even casual references which, in the light of recent tragedy, would appear in poor taste.

Recommended tonight: "Andy Williams Show," NBC, 10-11 (EST) — guests include Lawrence Welk, Phil Harris and the Osmund Brothers.

The discussion compared cultures of the past with those of the present and the need for understanding non-western cultures was emphasized. December 7 was announced as the date of the next meeting to be held at The Ranch, Chambersburg. Initiation of new members will begin at 11 a.m. followed by a luncheon at 12:15 p.m. Members from the Gettysburg area attending the Mont Alto meeting were Miss Jean Biggs, Miss Mary Hartman, Miss LeOra Held, Mrs. Ethel Kitzmiller, Miss Evelyn Ormer, Miss Eva Jane Schwartz, Miss Alice Snyder and Mrs. Dorothy Sprigg.

Assassination To Be Illegal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to make it a federal crime to assault or assassinate the President or vice president of the United States was introduced in the house today by Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa.

The bill would amend existing federal law providing penalties up to death for attacks on less federal officials, including federal judges, U. S. attorney, FBI and Secret Service agents.

"It is inconceivable to me that the protection of federal jurisdiction offered to a number of our federal officials has not been made available to our President and vice president," Schweiker said in a statement.

Crimes against the President and vice president are now punishable under the laws of the state in which they occur. The penalties provided in the present federal law covering certain lesser federal officials, to which Schweiker's bill would add President and vice president, include: First degree murder, death or life imprisonment in the discretion of the jury; second degree murder, up to life imprisonment; assault with a deadly weapon, up to 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine; assault without a dangerous or deadly weapon, up to three years imprisonment and $5,000 fine.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Five children died today in a flash fire in the city's Oakland District.

The children apparently were alone in the house, police said.

Home Plans Meet With President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sir Alec Douglas-Home, Britain's new prime minister, said today he will meet with President Johnson early in 1964 to discuss "all the outstanding problems in the world."

Home chatted with Johnson for nearly a half hour this morning at the White House but, as the prime minister reported, "we didn't really talk business at all."

Home said the American and British leaders intend to maintain "the closest personal contact."

GOP PAIR SAYS NO POLITICS IN NEXT 30 DAYS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona say they plan no political speeches for a month in deference to the late President John F. Kennedy.

Rockefeller, who has declared himself a candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, said Monday he will not push his candidacy during the 30-day period of mourning which he has decreed for New York State.

Goldwater, who leads polls as a potential GOP presidential nominee but has yet to declare himself in the running, told a reporter he has canceled three television appearances and will make no more political speeches this year.

TOPICS GONE
Since the assassination of Kennedy "there is an absence of anything political to talk about," Goldwater said.

Rockefeller said in a statement that during the 30-day mourning period "I shall not participate personally in any public activity in connection with the Republican presidential nomination, nor in any other public activities with the exception of those falling within my official duties as governor of New York State."

Goldwater said that so far as he is concerned, the tragic sequence of events has removed the Kennedy administration as an issue.

GIVE LBJ CHANCE
"We want to see what President Johnson will do," he said. "We do not know what course he will take, whether he will change some of them."

"We want to give him all of the room he needs to operate and all of the help he needs. It would not be fair for the opposing party to heckle him while he is getting organized in his new job. Let's give him a couple of months to see what he can do."

Chairman William E. Miller postponed a Dec. 11-14 meeting of the National Republican Committee and said "total suspension of partisan political activity is called for" during the period of mourning.

SCOTT PROPOSAL

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., wrote Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., Monday suggesting that the conference of all GOP senators pledge political silence for the remainder of the year.

Saltonstall, who heads the conference, is expected to react favorably. Scott is a former Republican national chairman.

Scott said he thought the Republicans could be of service to Johnson "by sparing the President the need to divert his attention from matters of national security as might be occasioned by political addresses around the country during the remainder of this calendar year."

Goldwater thought it too early to tell how Kennedy's death will affect the 1964 political picture.

As one credited with strong support in the South, he said that much may depend on what Johnson does about civil rights and other issues.

250,000 WEST BERLINERS PAY TRIBUTE TO JFK

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

Associated Press Staff Writer
BERLIN (AP) — A tearful crowd of 250,000 West Berliners gathered in "John F. Kennedy Square" Monday night for a final farewell to the man who won their affection only five months ago with the words "I am a Berliner."

They cried unashamedly as the sound of taps rolled across the square from two bugles—one answering the other—in memory of the American President they regarded as friend and brother.

Above the platform from which he had spoken amid wild jubilation in June there was now only his portrait, flanked by two palms that waved gently in the cold night wind.

OUTPOURING OF GRIEF

Never before has divided Berlin seen such an outpouring of grief as in the five days since the death of Kennedy. The vast crowd assembled Monday night at the call of Mayor Willy Brandt, who was in Washington for the President's funeral.

Deputy Mayor Heinrich Albrecht eulogized Kennedy as a "brother of the Berliners." He concluded the tribute by renaming the square in front of City Hall for the President. Police slowly undraped new street signs bearing his name.

As taps resounded from the bugles of two U.S. soldiers, lights in the square went out. The flicker of thousands of candles in windows of surrounding houses remained.

Brandt's wife covered her face and sobbed, while Maj. Gen. James H. Polk, the U.S. commandant in Berlin, looked drawn and tense. The British and French commandants also were deeply moved.

For one minute, West Berlin's Freedom Bell—a gift of the American people—told. Its clear ring carried across the wall into Communist East Berlin.

VOTE FRAUD CASES TAKEN INTO COURT

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—Northumberland County court has scheduled hearings Dec. 23 on petitions alleging vote fraud in the Nov. 5 county election.

Both petitions were filed Monday—one by the county Democratic committee the other by the Republican committee.

A third petition was filed by the Democrats asking county judges Robert Fortney and William Troutman to disqualify themselves from presiding at the hearing. A hearing on this petition will be held next Monday.

CLOSE CONTESTS

The race being contested involved two incumbent county commissioners seeking re-election, Republican Fred E. Hoffman and Democrat George Perles.

Hoffman was certified winner over Perles by a plurality of 89 votes. Prior to tabulation of 600 absentee ballots, however, Perles had held an 224 vote edge out of 38,000 cast.

In their petition, the Democrats challenged the absentee count. The Republicans questioned the results from the Lincoln district of Shamokin.

At stake is party control over the three-man county commission, which already has one Democrat and one Republican member. The Democrats have not controlled the commission in this county for 37 years.

BOY RESCUED; GIRL PERISHES

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Donald Widmann, 29, plunged into the burning house of a neighbor Monday and rescued a three-year-old boy but was unable to save the boy's 18-month-old sister, Corrine Gallant.

Widmann ran to the house half a block away when he saw the flames and crawled through a window. He handed the girl's brother, Wayne, through a window to Gerald Bruner, 29, who had been walking by when the fire broke out. Widmann found the girl's body in her crib.

Corrine was taken to Mercer Hospital in Trenton, N.J., across the Delaware River where she was pronounced dead of multiple burns.

Frank Miller, Bucks County deputy fire marshal, said the children's widowed mother, Katherine, 35, was shopping, three blocks away.

The eldest son, David, 7, told Miller the fire started when he dumped an ash tray into a garbage bag in the kitchen. He ran for help.

STATE PAUSES 20 MINUTES TO PAY TRIBUTE

HARRISBURG (AP) — State government paused for 20 solemn minutes today to pay one final tribute to John F. Kennedy, the assassinated 35th President of the United States.

An overflow crowd packed into the Capitol Rotunda to hear Gov. Scranton call upon all Americans to become "a nation united in a new dedication to the values of freedom and self-government."

The marble steps leading to the speakers' area was lined with 22 servicemen. Taps was sounded by a bugler and the ceremony ended with the throng singing the National Anthem.

Scranton, looking tired from his trip to Washington for the funeral and his subsequent meeting Monday night with the new President, Lyndon B. Johnson, was a picture of solemnity as he said:

TERRIBLE VIOLENCE
"This terrible violence, done both to a fine man and to our system of government, cries out for a greater rededication by all of us."

"It makes us realize that the American experiment is not yet complete. We still have much to do if freedom's cause is to be fully won."

Scranton was joined by his wife, Mary, Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, members of his cabinet and legislative leaders in leading the memorial services.

Shafer who presided over the tribute, said: "The office of the President of the United States belongs in some small measure to all of us. The tragic and senseless death of John F. Kennedy leaves a deep void in all of us."

GIVES INVOCATION
The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis A. Kirchner, vicar general of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg, delivered the invocation.

"Deliver not his soul into the hands of the enemy," Msgr. Kirchner prayed for the murdered President. "Assist our new President with Thy holy counsel and fortitude."

The 23rd Psalm was read by the Rev. Dr. Philip David Bookstaber, rabbi of the Temple Reform, Harrisburg.

The memorial prayer was offered by Bishop W. Vernon Middleton, resident bishop of the Western Pennsylvania Area of the Methodist Church.

PRAY FOR PEACE
"We're grateful for his life, his courageous leadership," Bishop Middleton intoned.

"Teach us anew the meaning of understanding and preparedness. Bless us as we pray for a nation of peace... A land free from tensions. Bless our native land and our new President. Guide him... Defend him from all harm."

The benediction was given by the Rt. Rev. Peter M. Kreta, administrator of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia Russian Orthodox Archdiocese.

The General Assembly eulogized President Kennedy Monday before adjourning for the week.

"POOR FELLOW"

The pessimist looks at the world... through glasses tinted gray... to him the skies are overcast... however bright the day... he sees only the dark side... of every single thing... hardly ever does he laugh... seldom does he sing... he seems to manufacture gloom... wherever he may go... touching even happy hearts... with his tale of woe... I pity this poor fellow... for it seems to me... he is captured in a web... of mental misery... but he serves a purpose... because he shows mankind... those who think as he does... will be left behind.

Information was distributed on progress being made in the development of the South Central Educational Broadcasting Council which hopes to have educational TV available in this area by next September.

INSKIP REPORTS
The board's action to authorize an accumulation of data necessary to planning for an area technical school in this county followed a report by Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip on preliminary work he has done showing that Adams County will have adequate enrollment to establish a school of its own rather than transport pupils to similar schools in York and Franklin Counties.

Mr. Inskip will present some of his preliminary studies at the Littlestown convention.

Dear General Baker,

Thank you so much for your letter of November 21. For my part I thought it the highest privilege to be able to take part in the opening exercises, and I am particularly honoured to have been able to commemorate one of the finest human expressions of man's aims in life that has ever been made. I shall always be grateful for the thought which came to you and your colleagues of the Centennial Commission to invite the successors of the diplomatic representatives who attended President Lincoln a hundred years ago.

When I was preparing my speech the thought came to me that President Kennedy had in some ways got himself into the same sort of political situation in which President Lincoln found himself in 1863; and I made a silent prayer that he would not end the same way. I want to express to you, as to all other Americans, my deep sympathy in the ghastly tragedy which took place at Dallas yesterday.

Yours very sincerely,

JOHNSON ASKS STATES TO AID KENNEDY AIMS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the first speech of his presidency, Lyndon B. Johnson called on 35 of the nation's governors to support the civil rights and tax cut programs of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Johnson's appeal came at a hastily-called closed meeting Monday night as many of the governors prepared to return home from Kennedy's funeral.

Excerpts of the speech released later by the White House made no mention of civil rights and the $11 billion tax cut. But the governors said the President made specific appeals for these two programs.

STANDING OVATION
Johnson received a standing ovation following the 20-minute speech.

Asking the governors' help and cooperation in the days ahead, Johnson said he planned to continue most Kennedy policies—especially in the area of foreign policy.

Johnson said that the U. S. government "will work only when people are willing to cooperate and work together for the common good." Noting that "our whole system has gone on trial," Johnson said:

"If they (the people) insist on glaring at each other, refusing to work together, and standing firmly on prerogatives and forgetting responsibilities, the nation will quickly be paralyzed."

KEY TO SYSTEM
The President also told the governors that "continuity without confusion has got to be our password and has to be the key to our system."

In the audience were two Republican presidential possibilities, Govs. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and William Scranton of Pennsylvania. Rockefeller is an announced candidate.

Both pledged their support to Johnson in seeking congressional passage of an omnibus civil rights bill and the tax reduction program.

Rockefeller called Johnson's speech a "very moving statement for unity in America" and said it had "the full endorsement of all present."

Scranton said Johnson made an impressive speech and received "the support of everyone present."

Scranton said he was certain the governors would unite behind the new President, adding that those present "gave every indication they desired to be cooperative and support him in his efforts."

After the President spoke, he shook hands and spoke to each governor individually.

When he came to Scranton, the governor recalled for news-men later, Johnson said: "I've been reading a lot about you."

"I said, 'Don't bother.' I've been reading a lot more about you and you're much more important," Scranton replied.

Gov. Elbert Carvel of Delaware and Gov. Richard Hughes of New Jersey were others attending.

91 Countries In Five Continents Send Representatives To Kennedy's Funeral

By HUGH MULLIGAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's final journey through the nation's capital to the waiting grave at Arlington was everywhere attended by little ironies and coincidences.

Like the mournful echoes of the muffled drums reverberating down the canyon of gray government buildings — echoes of his short but brilliant career resounded on the stricken hearts of the spectators along the funeral route.

On a brisk bright Monday in November, John Kennedy was being taken to his final resting place at Arlington. Only two weeks ago to the day he had visited the National Cemetery to lay a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and his little son, John, had charmingly fractured protocol by running out in front of the honor guard.

AT DADDY'S FUNERAL

Now here was little John observing his third birthday by clutching his mother's hand and walking behind his father's flag-draped casket in as moving a moment of personal history as the nation has known.

Earlier, on the steps of St. Matthew's Cathedral, there waited Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, his gaunt features chiseled with compassion and grief.

A long-time family friend, the cardinal had officiated at Kennedy's marriage, given the invocation at his inauguration, baptized his two living children and presided last July at the funeral Mass for his infant son, Patrick Bouvier.

SINGS "AVE MARIA"

As the cardinal intoned the opening prayers of the Requiem Mass, Boston tenor Luigi Vena sang Schubert's "Ave Maria." Ten years ago at the gala wedding of John Kennedy and Jacqueline Bouvier in Newport, R.I., he had rendered the same selection.

Vena had hardly finished when a police escort riding through the city at 60 miles an hour delivered Mary Ann Ryan, a distant cousin from Ireland, at the doors of the church.

"You must come visit us at the White House, you have the Kennedy look," the President had told her when he visited his ancestral home in County Wexford last June. Now here she was arriving at his funeral after a hectic transoceanic flight taken at the invitation of Mrs. Kennedy.

MOST IMPOSING

Her classic face paled by tragedy but her body erect with courage and dignity, Mrs. Kennedy was easily the most imposing figure among the august assemblage of world leaders, and past presidents, of Supreme Court justices, diplomats and congressmen.

The shocking death in the family of nations had brought forth an unprecedented procession of ruling royalty and heads of state. From 91 countries and five continents they had come: a king and an emperor, a queen and a number of crown princes, two chancellors, four premiers and an apostolic delegate. In all, 16 presidents or heads of state, 38 foreign ministers and six defense ministers and military chiefs.

Some, like President Charles de Gaulle of France and Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan of the Soviet Union, had been more than occasional thorn in the side of the departed President. Others, like Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, had recently enjoyed his hospitality at the White House.

Jailed 3 Months In Burglary Case

Robert E. Mays, 19, Biglerville R. 2, was placed in the county jail for three months Sunday evening at 9 o'clock on a charge of burglarizing a cigarette machine in the Ditzler Laundromat in Biglerville.

Biglerville Justice of the Peace Joseph Sunbury said the young man admitted the burglary and said he had gone to the laundromat and opened the cigarette machine after an argument with his father. Later he phoned state police to say the laundromat machine had been burglarized but did not give his name.

Biglerville policemen Sterling Roth and R. Dale Guise began an investigation on notification from state police and later brought Mays before the justice.

There he was fined $100 and ordered to pay the costs. In default of the payment the three-month jail sentence was levied.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Would Tunnel The Mountain: According to advices from New York, the recent visit of John D. Rockefeller Jr., when he inspected part of the Western Maryland Railway, including the line through Gettysburg, may result in the tunneling of a portion of the Blue Ridge Mountains. When Mr. Rockefeller returned from his inspection he frankly said that in his present shape with its heavy grades over the Blue Ridge Mountains and with a single track, the road cannot hope to compete successfully with the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania for this through business. He represents the controlling interest in this property and the Standard Oil capitalists behind him are credited with dominating the Western Maryland situation.

Must Read The Bible: Dr.

Nathan C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction made an address to the Franklin county teachers' fifty-ninth annual institute. He told them in his usual plain English that the teachers must read ten verses of the Bible to their pupils every day or resign. There is nothing else left for the teachers to do. They must observe the law and set a proper example for the boys and girls or resign and go to Illinois or Wisconsin, where there is no such law and where the Supreme Court excludes the Bible from the schools. Dr. Schaeffer said it made little odds which version of the Bible is used, although he prefers the Revised, because many words in King James edition have changed their meanings. There are 200 or more such words in common use which mean something else now, compared to the time the book was edited for the good old British King.

Silver Anniversary: The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the St. James Christian Endeavor Society was held in the main auditorium of the church Sunday evening in the presence of a large audience.

The society was the first of its kind in Adams County and from it a number of others have sprung, among them being the one at the Muhlenberg Mission in Africa. Miss Lily Dougherty, now its president, told in a brief historical sketch of the trials through which its founders went at its beginning and of the steady growth with constantly increasing interest. During the years of the society's existence there has been one member who has remained interested and faithful from its beginning to the present and in concluding her sketch Miss Dougherty presented to Miss Annie Wolf a gold medal in recognition of her faithfulness. Miss Maud Miller told of the organization and work of the Junior Society which now has 151 members on its roll. Miss Lillian Ring sang beautifully "These Are They Which Came" and letters were read from Dr. Joel Swartz of Baltimore under whose pastorate the St. James society was formed; and from Dr. A. R. Steck, York, and Dr. J. A. Clutz, Gettysburg, who served the church as pastors during the life of the Christian Endeavor. The evening's address was made by Rev. Joseph B. Baker, Prof. O. G. Klinger organized the society in 1883 with these as the charter members: Charles Swartz, Frank Swartz, Miss Annie Wolf, Mrs. Lillie Miller Powell, Miss Kate Miller, Miss Sadie Stallsmith, Mrs. Elizabeth Howard Swartz, Mrs. Rose Pitzer Stevenson, Mrs. Blanche Grammar Ernest. The presidents of the society have been Charles Swartz, Mr. Bruch, Frank Swartz, George Barbehenn, My-

Today's Talk

ON EARNING

What we earn we appreciate. It becomes a part of us. We take pride in it and it spurs us on to higher and better things. There is something intimate about earned things that is always lacking when they come to us otherwise. We hear it said about many a man that "he came up the hard way," but it would be more expressive if it were stated that he came up the earned way.

The small boy looks upon himself as a somebody with his first earned dime or dollar. He feels he is set to go somewhere — that he can then hope to be like his Dad — some time.

The things we earn we usually handle intelligently. A nation of earners is an intelligent nation. A man takes pride in himself when he earns his way along, for he is constantly reminded that he has done something that is plausible, something that does credit to his own initiative and enterprise.

The home owner is happier in his own home — that he has purchased through years of saving, sacrifice and sweat — than the one who merely rents, with no desire to be more independent. And the former takes better care of his home because it has meant so much to him. He keeps thinking of all that he has put into it of work and planning.

Earned things last longer, too! We are often careless with borrowed, or rented things, often only half caring for things that have been given to us, without effort on our part to gain them.

Fortune often smiles on some, giving them plenty, or elevating them to important positions, without effort on their part, but they can never compete to their advantage with those who up. He who has earned his way has learned leadership through every stage of advancement. He is the alert dependable one.

Even the lines in our faces are earned. They tell the story of all that we have done, or been, and they tell the story of what we are!

TRUTH SEEKING

"I want to know the truth," he cried,
"To face the facts I will be brave,
From knowledge I'll not run to hide,
To fancy I'll not be a slave.
Nor will I say a thing is so
Unless I absolutely know."

"That two and two make four," said he,
"I know is true beyond a doubt,
On that with none I'll disagree,
It has been often tested out."
"But 'two and two,' said I, 'is not The only way that 'four' is got."

"This 'four' you call the absolute
Can still in other ways be made.
Who can in fractions small compute
Can find preciseness to a shade.
And 'three and one' will give to you
As true a 'four' as 'two and two.'"

"In spite of all the doctrines preached,
In spite of all our endless pains,
The goal of truth however reached,
Unaltered and unchanged remains,
And there are 20 ways or more
By which a man can come to 'four.'"

Cubans Refused Visa For Oswald

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban government said Monday night that Lee Harvey Oswald, accused of assassinating President John F. Kennedy, tried Sept. 27 to get a visa to go through Cuba on the way to the Soviet Union.

Oswald's request was turned down, the Cuban government said in a statement broadcast by Havana radio and monitored in Miami.

Foreign Minister Raul Roa said the request was not granted because Oswald did not have authorization from the Soviet Union.

FARM CO-OPS

SALES VOLUME HITS NEW HIGH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The volume of business of farmer cooperatives reached a record $17.2 billion in the 1961-62 book-keeping year, the Agriculture Department reported today.

This was an increase of 6.2 per cent over the previous year's $16.2 billion despite a slight decline in the number of cooperative and membership in them.

After eliminating transactions among cooperatives, business volume amounted to $13 billion, 5 per cent above a year earlier. The net volume figure of $13 billion is 60 per cent greater than in 1950-51, the first year in which the department's Farmer Cooperative Service began collecting complete statistics.

NUMBER DECLINES

The number of cooperatives declined by 124, to 9,039. Since 1930, the number of cooperatives has declined by 25 per cent, but the department called this a healthy sign. It said reorganizations, mergers and consolidations had been made largely to improve operations and extend services.

Of the 9,039 cooperatives, 5,626 were engaged mainly in marketing farm products, 3,206 in handling farm production supplies, and 207 in performing services related to marketing farm products and handling farm supplies.

Dairy products continued to rank first in net dollar volume with $3.42 billion, grain second with $2.2 billion and livestock third with $1.5 billion.

Total membership of the cooperatives declined 1.3 per cent to 7,110,240. The department said this reflected the continuing decrease in the number of farmers in the country.

After tapering off a bit last year, cigarette smoking by Americans has reached a record level.

The Agriculture Department estimated today this year's output of cigarettes at 550 billion, about 3 per cent above 1962, with U. S. consumption up about the same percentage.

The 1963 consumption of cigars, including cigarillos, was estimated at 7.2 billion, 1 1/2 to 2 per cent over the level of the past three years during which cigar consumption changed little.

Proposes Issue Of Kennedy Coins

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco advertising man proposed today that five million 50-cent pieces be struck off in memory of the late President Kennedy.

The pieces should be sold for $1 to raise money for scholarships, assistance to the family of the Dallas policeman killed in capturing Kennedy's accused assassin and to aid the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, advertising man Al Toth proposed in a letter to the examiner.

Toth said he believes everyone would agree with the first two objectives.

"As for the third, the Oswald widow and children knew nothing of the horrible plot concocted by Oswald . . . It would give notice to the world that we are a humane and compassionate people," Toth said.

Johnson Writes To Kennedy Children

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first two letters Lyndon B. Johnson signed as President were to the two children whose father was buried Monday.

The letters to Caroline Kennedy, 6 years old Wednesday, and John F. Kennedy Jr., 3 years old Monday, told them at the beginning they perhaps are too young to understand it all now. Friday just after his return from Texas and only hours after he had been sworn in to succeed their slain father in the highest office of the nation. Johnson wrote the letters.

ICE FOLLIES OPEN TONIGHT

HERSHEY, Pa. — Two comedy teams that have convulsed Ice Follies audiences for many seasons will be back for another try at it when the big ice show's 28th edition opens a limited, 5-day engagement at Hershey Sports Arena this evening. They are the Beattys and Scarecrows.

Colin and Molly Beatty, a couple of dancing pranksters from England, have developed a new routine designed to make their audiences guess what is rehearsed in their act and what is not. Their comedy style, demanding absolute timing and coordination, is one of the most original on the ice today.

Beatty is also a member of the Scarecrows, slapstick comedy experts who have one of the fastest-moving routines in the business. Colin's partners are Bill Jack, from Paisley, Scotland, and a 12-year veteran of Ice Follies, and Bob LeDuc, former Canadian hockey player who joined the show in 1949. The helter-skelter pace of the Scarecrows requires the entire ice surface—and sometimes a portion of the off-ice area. They'll be seen as Bunkhouse Buckaroos in a hilarious western skit.

Also returning to augment the Ice Follies comedy corps will be Doug Sears and Dick Cooper, impersonators of the huge animal, Hillybilly Hound; the Kermond Brothers, Australian acrobatic comics; and Mr. Frick, 25-year veteran who is rapidly approaching his 10,000th performance.

Mount Cagers To Oppose St. Joseph's In Opener Saturday In Palestra

Among the collegiate basketball teams which will open their seasons this week is Mt. St. Joseph's who will play the lid to the 1963-64 campaign by opposing always-powerful St. Joseph's of Philadelphia in the first game of a doubleheader at the Palestra, Philadelphia, Saturday evening. LaSalle meets Albright in the second game.

One of the big problems facing Coach Jim Phelan is speed, much of which disappeared when Eddie Pfeiffer and Dave Maloney graduated. Also missing via graduation is John O'Reilly, the husky rebounder and prolific scorer. All were handicapped by injuries a year ago and missed many key games.

According to Phelan the Mount will play a more deliberate brand of ball and go for the good shot. "We've got good overall shooting and adequate rebounding," says Phelan.

CAMPBELL RETURNS

Jack Campbell, 6-6, who left school last winter, has returned 40 pounds lighter and is expected to clinch a regular berth. Backing him up and pressing strong is Bill Neuss, 6-6.

At present it appears John Carrell, 6-3 sophomore, and Ed Folk, 6-5 Junior, will pair off at forwards with Mike Costello, 6-4 Senior, and Bernie Haag, 6-0 sophomore, in the back court.

Jim Liversberger, 5-10 Senior guard, will lead Delone High in scoring in his Senior year, has been tabbed by Phelan as probably their best dribbler and quickest shot.

FIVE-MINUTE LEGISLATIVE SESSION HELD

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Legislature met briefly Monday to fulfill a constitutional requirement, then adjourned in respect to the memory of the late President John F. Kennedy.

"We assemble here this morning with sadness and heavy hearts," Speaker W. Stuart Helm said in opening the five-minute meeting of the House.

Across the empty capitol—closed in mourning for the late President—Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, presiding officer of the Senate, declared to a similarly brief Senate session:

"The brutal assassination of President Kennedy leaves a void in the hearts of free men everywhere.

PLANS CHANGED

"We of the Senate join Mrs. Kennedy and the nation in this day of bereavement."

The legislature, meeting in special session to iron out reappointment of House and Senate seats, had been scheduled to vote bills affecting both chambers and settle a leadership fight in the House.

The death of President Kennedy on Friday wiped all that out.

RETURN IN DECEMBER

When the legislature adjourned last week before the President's assassination it set today as the day for reconvening. Under law the session could not be postponed.

The Senate cancelled its plans for the remainder of the week and planned to return next Monday at 3 p.m.

The House fixed its new return date as Wednesday, Dec. 4, at 11 a.m.

NEGRO WINS IN DEL. CONTEST

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Democrat Herman M. Holloway Sr. is preparing to take a seat in the Delaware House of Representatives based on unofficial results of last Saturday's election.

President Judge William Duffy Jr. of Superior Court and Judge Andrew D. Christie were to meet today to canvass the votes and certify the election from the first district.

Holloway, who had 704 votes, will hold the highest elective post in the state held by a Negro. He will take his seat when the legislature reconvenes, probably Dec. 2.

His opponents were Alvin C. Boardley, Republican, who polled 384 votes, and William H. Burton, independent Democrat who polled 371.

The election filled the seat vacated by the death of Rep. Paul F. Livingston, a Democrat.

First baseman Norm Siebern led the Kansas City Athletics in home runs with 16 and in runs batted in with 83 last season.

AF And Colorado Cancel Meeting

AIR FORCE ACADEMY

Colo. (AP)—Representatives of the Air Force Academy and University of Colorado have canceled Tuesday's meeting at which they were to decide when their football teams would meet.

A spokesman for the Academy said permission had not been received from Washington to hold the game, originally scheduled for last Saturday.

Military services were ordered to cancel social activities and entertainment for 30 days after President Kennedy's assassination.

TRADITIONAL SERVICE GAME IS UNDECIDED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The traditional Army-Navy football game is scheduled for Saturday at Philadelphia Stadium, but no decision has yet been made on whether or not it will be played.

Officials of both service academies have expressed themselves in favor of the game, but there has been a strong feeling it might be canceled out of respect for former President John F. Kennedy.

The next 30 days have been designated as a period of official mourning for the Armed Services.

There was no indication when a decision would be announced. Army's team, coached by Paul Dietzel, has continued working out. "We have had no official word on the game," said Dietzel. "We are waiting for a decision."

Navy Coach Wayne Hardin said, "We all feel like we have been hit in the pit of the stomach by this tragic blow. We haven't had an inkling on the playing of the game."

TALK ABOUT BOWL CARDS

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Auburn has the inside track on an Orange Bowl bid, bowl officials said, if the Tigers put up a good show against Alabama in the final game Saturday. Auburn is ranked No. 9, Alabama No. 6.

Bama is a likely participant in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, as is Mississippi. If Auburn should stumble badly against its state rival, the Orange Bowl sponsors may look in Pitt's direction. The Panthers play Miami Saturday night, in their next-to-last game. They also have been mentioned for the Gator Bowl.

Michigan State went back to work late Monday to prepare for the postponed meeting with Illinois, now scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, that will settle the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl assignment—but the squad showed none of its usual zest and high spirits.

"This wasn't a normal day," Coach Duffy Daugherty said. "They had just come from watching the funeral of the President on television."

Daugherty said further practice sessions would be closed to fans and newsmen, as the coaches try to build up enthusiasm again for the game.

Illinois delayed its workout until after burial ceremonies were ended.

Six Hawks Among Top NHL Scorers

MONTREAL (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks, running away with the National Hockey League race and scoring goals at a season record pace, placed six men in the top ten scoring list, statistics showed today.

Hawks rank 1-2 in points and 1-2-3 in goals. Bobby Hull with 31 and Stan Mikita with 30 top the points makers, and Hull, 14, Mikita, 13, and Kenny Wharram, 12, are the leading goal makers.

The Hawks, leading the league by nine points, have scored 73 goals in 19 games. At that rate they would have 269 goals for the season, topping the record 259 scored by the Montreal Canadiens in 1961-62.

At the same point last year, the Hawks also led the league, but with only 50 goals.

Chicago goalies Glenn Hall and Denis DeJordy also top the league, with a goals against average of 2.11.

FEW CHANGES IN AP'S NEW GRIDIRON POLL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Due to cancellations and postponements in respect to the memory of the late President Kennedy, only a handful of college football games were played last weekend. As a result there were few changes in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Texas, due to end its regular season Thursday in its usual test with Texas A&M, remained in the No. 1 position as the only major unbeaten and untied team in the nation. The final poll will be held next week.

With the fate of the Army-Navy game still hanging in the balance, awaiting a final decision from Washington, idle Navy clung to second place. It was considered likely that Navy would be invited to the Cotton Bowl for a New Year's Day game with Texas if the Middles beat the Cadets.

Pitt in No. 5

Mississippi, which had an open date before Saturday's final game with Mississippi State, remained in the No. 3 spot. Then came Michigan State, whose important Big Ten finale with Illinois was put off until Thursday.

Pittsburgh's game with Penn State was postponed to Dec. 7, but the Panthers held position No. 5, Pitt plays Miami, Fla., Saturday night. Alabama, idle since Nov. 16, moved up a peg to No. 6 with an important game coming up Saturday against Auburn.

The only big shuffle resulted in Nebraska, a 92-0 winner over Oklahoma for the Big Eight title, moving up to No. 7 from 10th a week ago. Oklahoma, which had been No. 6, fell to No. 10.

NEBRASKA FINISHED

Illinois, waiting for the big game with Michigan State, remained No. 8, followed by Auburn which defeated Florida State 21-15.

Nebraska is the only team among the Top Ten to have finished its regular schedule.

The Top Ten with first-place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8 etc., basis

1. Texas (20) 218

2. Navy (2) 170

3. Mississippi 157

4. Michigan State 155

5. Pittsburgh 123

6. Alabama 118

7. Nebraska 82

GAME RESCHEDULED

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (AP) — Swarthmore and Haverford Colleges, which postponed their football and soccer games last weekend because of the assassination of President Kennedy, have rescheduled them for Wednesday at Swarthmore.

Albie Pearson and Jim Fregosi both played in 154 games for the Los Angeles last season

Coast Guard To Play At Orlando

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Two teams which have never appeared in the Tangerine Bowl football game will meet here Dec. 28 in the 18th annual affair.

Bowl officials announced Monday night that the Coast Guard Academy of New London, Conn., coached by Otto Graham of Cleveland Browns fame, will oppose Western Kentucky of Bowling Green. The Kentucky team was chosen earlier.

TEXAS, NAVY FAVORED TO WIN SATURDAY

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Most of the major bowl berths and conference titles are still undecided going into the last big weekend of the college football season. A majority of last week's scheduled settlers were postponed because of the death of President Kennedy.

Here are the winners for the remainder of the season:

Texas over Texas A&M if Tommy Ford can't outrun the determined Cadets Thanksgiving Day, then Tony Crosby will kick across the decisive points. Texas takes a perfect record into the Cotton Bowl game.

PICKS HOWARD

Navy over Army The Mid-dies successfully complete their Drive for Five Saturday. Army, strictly an infantry aggregation, has neither an aerial offense nor anti-aircraft weapons and Roger Staubach not only can scramble and run but he also can pass.

Harvard over Yale This is one of the postponed games that will be played Saturday. The late President's Alma Mater will triumph decisively.

Syracuse over Notre Dame It took most of the season but Syracuse's backfield questions all have been answered, which is bad news for Notre Dame. The scene is Yankee Stadium on Thursday.

SPARTAN CHOICE

Michigan State over Illinois The Spartans grab the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl assignment in one swoop.

Alabama over Auburn A Saturday bruiser, and Alabama has the corner on muscles.

Mississippi over Mississippi State In recent years this has been a mere workout for Ole Miss., always enroute to a New Year's Day bowl contest. This Saturday it will be a rugged affair but the result will be the same.

RUBE PARNHAM DIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—James A. (Rube) Parnham, an old-time major league pitcher, died Monday after collapsing on a street in nearby McKeesport.

Parnham, 67, pitched for the old Philadelphia Athletics in 1916-17, compiling a 2-2 mark. He also hurled for the old Baltimore Orioles of the International League.

DETROIT LIONS RULED OUT OF MIAMI GAME

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Hanging out the pro football wash:

The National Football League's conference races are far from settled, but one thing was settled Sunday The Detroit Lions, who have held the Western Conference franchise in the Playoff Bowl for the three years since it was inaugurated, will not be playing in Miami Jan. 5.

The Lions have been in all three previous games matching the runners-up in each conference. They cannot finish as high as second this season, but likely will play a key role in deciding who does—either Chicago or Green Bay.

The one that doesn't will be the Western Conference champion.

The Lions meet the second-place Packers Thanksgiving and tangle with the first-place Bears Dec. 15 on the final day of the regular season.

Quote of the Week: Honors go to St. Louis defensive back Jerry Stovall. Asked if the Cardinals had anticipated a fake field goal try by the Giants in the fourth period, Stovall said the Cards were adequately prepared for a pass.

"In fact," he said, "this is the first time I've been on a team with 11 safety men."

Sunday may have been the day of decision for four NFL coaches. Philadelphia's Nick Skorich may have lost his job while losing to Washington 13-10 and dropping into the Eastern Division cellar. At the same time Bill McPeak of the Redskins came through with a much needed victory. Harland Svarre of Los Angeles also seems to have secured his job with the Rams beating Baltimore for their fourth victory in the last six games. But Jack Christiansen of San Francisco watched the 49ers record drop to 2-9 after a loss to the Packers, and needs improvement quick.

SAYS MIRA IS GREATER THAN EVER THIS FALL

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Is George Mira, Miami's All-America a year ago, still a topnotch quarterback in spite of his team's 3-5 record this season?

Here's how his coach, Andy Gustafson, answers the question:

"Despite every conceivable handicap, George has been far greater than he was in 1962. There is no doubt that he is the nation's greatest passing quarterback."

"WAIT AND SEE"

"If you don't believe it, wait and see who is the No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft."

Unquestionably, any pro club would jump at the chance to grab the 6-foot-2, 182-pound bomber whose accurate aerial shots have propelled him close to the top of the list among college football's all-time great passers.

The San Francisco 49ers reportedly have a fat contract ready for Mira if they get first call in the NFL draft.

Time For America To Take Look At Herself

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — It's time America took a look at itself.

When an African or Asian leader is slain it may be regarded here as the result of a society less advanced than this one. This is an American myth, as Americans have demonstrated once again.

A president and a policeman shot to death and a governor wounded in Dallas and the man charged with the crimes in turn murdered, before he got a fair trial, by a gunman who leaped through police lines to shoot him.

PRODUCT OF SOCIETY

These crimes are a product of the American society where violence and talk of violence increase as state officials defy federal court orders until troops are called out to stop them.

Yet, supreme achievements of the Western world are supposed to be respect for law, democratic and orderly change in government, a fair trial, and freedom and protection of freedom for the individual man, no matter who he is.

If President Kennedy had been the first president killed in office, it would be awful enough.

3 OTHER ATTEMPTS

It would mean one individual, ignoring constitutional and peaceful change in government, decided to take the law into his own hands to eliminate an elected leader.

But killing American presidents, or trying to, is now assuming the complexion of a tradition. Four have been assassinated: Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, and now Kennedy.

Attempts were made on the lives of three other presidents: Jackson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman. A gunman shot Theodore Roosevelt after his presidency but while he was seeking re-election.

NONE IN BRITAIN

In that same period of almost 100 years not one British prime minister was assassinated. A madman did kill a prime minister, Spencer Perceval, 151 years ago.

It can't be argued the British are basically different or that among them the percentage of lunatics or discontented are proportionately smaller. They are simply more dedicated to peaceful and orderly government.

As long ago as 1200 B.C. an Egyptian king, Ramesses III, looking over his own administration of law and justice, said: "I made the land safe so that a lone woman could go on her way freely and none would molest her."

ENTITLED TO TRIAL

That's more than the United States can say today. 3,100 years later, even about the safety of its presidents. But the worst criminal, even the killer of a president, is entitled to a fair trial.

Even here in Washington, the nation's capital, there is growing uneasiness about walking the streets at night because of the number of people being robbed, stabbed, shot or dragged into alleys to be raped.

Adlai E. Stevenson, twice a presidential candidate and now U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, found exactly one month ago, also in Dallas, that not even a man in his position was safe from some violence on the street.

"MISGUIDED WRETCH"

After leaving an auditorium, where he made a speech on the 18th birthday of the United Nations, he was surrounded by pickets, one of whom spat in his face. He was hit on the head with a sign carried by a woman.

Stevenson, who has a fine sense of history, freedom and justice, told her: "It's all right to have your own views but don't hit anyone."

Sunday Chief Justice Earl Warren, at a eulogy beside Kennedy's casket, wondered what moved "some misguided wretch" to murder the President.

KNOWS ABOUT FANATICS

He said: "We do know that such acts are commonly stimulated by forces of hatred and malevolence such as today are eating their way into the bloodstream of American life. What a price to pay for fanaticism."

He knows about fanaticism. Hate has spilled all over him and the other justices of the Supreme Court for their decisions on the side of freedom and civil rights.

He has been ridiculed and mocked. There have been calls to lynch him and impeach him for "giving aid and comfort to the Communist conspiracy."

SHUDDERED AT CHEERS

Also Sunday former Vice President Richard M. Nixon asked all Americans to "pledge themselves to fight this tendency of hatred and violence we've seen in the last two days. We cannot help but deplore a

SECURITY IS DIFFICULT TASK

WASHINGTON (AP)—American security officers—still shaken by the assassination of John F. Kennedy — had the staggering job Monday of protecting some 27 heads of state and government, including President Johnson.

Making the task that much more difficult was the fact that many of them walked in the slow procession behind Kennedy's casket from the White House to St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Cathedral several blocks away.

To throw a screen of protection about them, officials used a maximum security plan drawn several months ago, just in case, for guarding the foreign dignitaries in and around the cathedral.

Army security officers, Secret Service agents and metropolitan police devised the elaborate arrangements last spring, church officials recalled, against any eventuality the church might be required for an assembly of important personages.

The agreements on the contracts, which basically are for three years, were reached during the week-end.

Locals of International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, at Youngwood, Blairsville and Vanport, Pa., and Dover, N. J., ratified the contracts Sunday.

Texas Governor Is Out Of Danger

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Texas Gov. John Connally, seriously wounded at the time President Kennedy was assassinated, has regained enough strength to walk around his hospital room.

Mrs. Connally still obviously upset by the death of the President and the wounding of her husband Friday, said the governor is now apparently out of danger.

"He asked me to tell everyone he is going to be all right," Mrs. Connally read Sunday from a prepared statement to newsmen at Parkland Hospital. "Gov. Connally has asked me to convey to the people of Texas, the nation and the world our deep sorrow of the sickening tragedy which struck at one of President Kennedy's most trying hours."

Kennedy Prophecy Of 8 Years Ago Became Epitaph

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy probably never meant to be his own prophet but he was when he explained eight years ago why he chose certain men in American history for his book, "Profiles in Courage."

His prophecy became his epitaph.

"The courage of life," he said, long before he was considered for the presidency, "is often a less dramatic spectacle than the courage of a final moment; but it is no less a magnificent mixture of triumph and tragedy."

KNOW THE PERILS

"A man does what he must—in spite of personal consequences, in spite of obstacles and dangers and pressures—and that is the basis of all human morality."

It took courage to push through crowds to shake hands or ride through a city with the top down. He knew the consequences might be assassination, and they were. But he felt what he did needed doing.

The deeper courage of his life, as with others before him, was in seeking the presidency and then trying to make good at it, with all that implies in effort.

MORE THAN ENERGY

He gave the presidency a youthful sense of life unmatched since the bouncing days of Theodore Roosevelt, if only because all the others in between were older when they took office. Kennedy was only 43.

President Johnson, 55, cannot be expected to spend himself as tirelessly, at least in a physical way, as Kennedy. His heart attack of 1955 makes it important not to get over-fatigued.

Kennedy brought more than courage and energy to the White House. Like Sir Winston Churchill, he had that indefinable thing called grace.

2ND TERM WAS LIKELY

Churchill always had style but he developed grace late. Kennedy always had it, and it showed for what lay ahead since he himself in his quiet humor, even at his own expense, and in his avoidance of political brawling. At this moment, so close to his death and before the emotion over his assassination melts away, it is impossible to measure his place in history.

He was president less than three years or only five months longer than Harding, who was a misfit no matter how he is looked at. Kennedy, on the contrary, fitted into the presidency almost elegantly.

Yet, his less than three years of service were hardly more than a beginning, a foundation for what lay ahead since he seemed very likely to win a second term.

POPULAR ABROAD

In that time, abroad, he had become a highly popular and respected figure. He had established better relations with the Soviet Union than had existed. He won the confidence of most of Latin America.

His place in history may well depend upon the fact, if it proves to be a fact, that he broke the ice of the cold war. But it is too soon to do more than suggest that may be result of the work he did in his short time.

His domestic record is spotty. In his presidency the country became more prosperous and perhaps more self-confident particularly when he assured it the United States was ahead of the Soviet Union in long-range missiles.

NOT NATURALLY TOUGH

But he bogged down badly with Congress. All through 1963 Congress just drifted, frustrating completely his request for a new civil rights law and a tax cut. Maybe it would have done better next year.

Maybe it would have done better this year if he had been harsher and tougher.

It didn't seem to be in his nature to be harsh and he appeared unwilling to be very tough except as a last resort, such as in making Premier Khrushchev take his missiles out of Cuba or using troops to stop Southern governors' defiance of federal court orders.

Bells Toll And Business Stops In Memory Of Slain Leader

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Americans everywhere paid final tribute Monday to John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

Airports, railroads and communication services halted operations momentarily as the President's funeral was held in Washington.

Many businesses and schools closed, as did amusement places, most governmental offices and the stock markets.

Thousands showed up at the site of the President's assassination in Dallas Tex. Floral arrangements carried a myriad of messages. One said, "God Forgive Us All."

At Honesdale, Pa., the bell at Grace Episcopal church tolled 46 times at noon, once for each year of Kennedy's life.

LINCOLN BELL TOLLS

In Norfolk, Va., a bell atop the city's Public Safety Building rang 50 times, once for each state.

In an old firehouse at Keokuk, Iowa, and in the First Presbyterian church in Springfield, Ill., bells that tolled 98 years ago for another assassinated president, Abraham Lincoln, rang out again.

New York's bustling Times Square came to a standstill at noon. Pedestrians stood reverently, heads bowed, as two Boy Scouts blew Taps from atop the Hotel Astor marquee. Traffic had been diverted from the area.

In the cathedral-like confines of New York's Grand Central Station, 4,000 commuters watched silently as a huge television screen carried the funeral.

NAVAL SALUTE

Navy warships in San Francisco Bay and the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt, docked in Bayonne, N.J., boomed 21-gun salutes. Twenty-one guns were fired at noon at the Virginia Military Institute, followed by a 50-gun salute at 5:30 p.m.

As Taps sounded at 3:06 p.m., EST, at Arlington National Cemetery, The Associated Press silenced its news wires.

Telegraph facilities of Radio Corp. of America and Western Union halted messages for several minutes at noon and at 1 p.m., respectively.

STOP ALL TRAINS

Railroads stopped all trains, wherever they were, for the one minute past the noon hour. At Narberth, Pa., a Pennsylvania Railroad conductor, Harry R. McCallister, played Taps aboard a stopped train while 200 passengers stood with heads bowed.

Mrs. Kennedy Returns To Grave At Midnight

By JOHN BARBOUR

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP)—The red glow of the saddest sunset faded over the hill's crest—and left President Kennedy and 126,000 other sleeping heroes to the privacy of night.

Gone were the crowds that had trailed the funeral procession across the nation's capital. Gone were the impressive and important of 54 governments. Gone were the close and dear.

Now, through the still woods and the open lawns sounded the melancholy boom of cannon—50 times for the 50 states. Even in darkness and mist, the tombstones—like small white scars on the earth—marked the resting place of his new company.

SILENT PARLIAMENT

Down the slope and across the black Potomac, you could see the glittering lights of the capital and the towering Washington Monument, the graceful Capitol dome and the pillars of the Lincoln Memorial.

On this hill—gray green in the face of coming winter—the 35th president of the United States had joined a parliament of silent men.

By 5:05 p.m. the cannon had ended their soliloquy to dusk, and night came quickly.

SPRIG OF FLOWERS

At graveside, there was work to be finished, and when it was done the headlights of cars pointed the way through the winding cemetery roads.

There were still guards, of course. And down below along the rim of the cemetery, the curious and sympathetic passersby searched the darkness for the small glint of the eternal flame that burns at Kennedy's graveside.

Seven minutes before midnight, the President's widow returned to the cemetery. By the light of the flickering flame, she placed a sprig of flowers on his newly covered grave.

She knelt again to say a prayer and lit the eternal flame.

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Classes have been cancelled at Dickinson College for the remainder of the week, it was announced last night.

The Thanksgiving recess, originally scheduled to start Thursday, was moved up because of the death of President Kennedy, a spokesman said.

Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston who had officiated at the Kennedy wedding in 1953, came down the steps of the church to greet the Kennedy family. John, 3, Monday and Caroline, 6 Wednesday, joined their mother.

Then came the solemn service, a low Requiem Mass. "We pray," the cardinal intoned, "that John Kennedy may be

Following the pattern of the funeral of another slain president, Abraham Lincoln, she asked that a procession march on foot to take the chief executive's body to the church funeral and she led it herself.

To a woman with such a keen desire for privacy, the ordeal of the funeral ceremonial for her husband seemed doubly difficult. Yet, Mrs. Kennedy not only planned many of the details to give her husband "the most distinguished funeral possible," but took a full role herself despite her heart-breaking grief.

Assassination Report Is Ordered By Johnson

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has ordered the FBI to prepare a detailed report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and that the people be told all the facts.

The report is to cover, too, the fatal shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused slayer of the late president, the White House announced Monday.

Johnson has "directed all federal agencies to cooperate," the White House said.

The announcement came after Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the assistant House Democratic leader, suggested a high-level congressional investigation of Kennedy's assassination.

FULL INQUIRY

Citing the fact that the killing of Oswald, 24, aborted the normal public disclosure and weighing of evidence in a trial, Boggs said he thinks Congress should conduct a careful inquiry to determine the facts, assemble them for public consideration and try to answer any questions that may linger in Americans' minds.

Authorities in Dallas, where a sniper's rifle bullets ended Kennedy's life Friday, say the evidence is conclusive and that the case is closed—so far as the question of Oswald's guilt or innocence is concerned.

Perhaps feeling that there is still some uneasiness in the public mind, Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry said his department intends to make all the evidence public unless federal agencies want some withheld.

RIGHT-WING PLOT

A further problem is the persistent campaign by some Soviet propaganda agencies to depict the killing of Oswald, who had steadily protested his innocence, as part of a right-wing plot that took the president's life.

Boggs said he favors a "blue-ribbon inquiry, far above any suggestion of partisanship."

THREE FIGURES IN TRAGEDY ARE LAID TO REST

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON Jr.
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Like the President with whom their fate became inextricably linked, the hero cop and the drifting Communist went to their rest Monday.

President John F. Kennedy was buried in the solemn majesty of a nation's grief in Arlington National Cemetery.

The cop went to his rest in a gentle hilltop in South Dallas—in a grave still unmarked with a stone.

FURTIVE CEREMONY

And the Communist was buried almost furtively in simple ceremonies in a Fort Worth graveyard.

The President, authorities said, was shot to death Friday by the Communist, Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, who drifted into the Marine Corps and out with an undesirable discharge, into Soviet Russia with a desire to change his citizenship and out when he pleaded with the State Department to let him come home.

The policeman, Patrolman J. D. Tippit, met Oswald about three miles from the assassination scene Friday and was shot to death when he stopped him for questioning—probably after hearing a description of the assassin on his prowl car radio.

SUCCESSION OF EVENTS

Soon Oswald was charged with murdering both the President and the patrolman—and 36 hours later he, too, was dead, gunned down by a fourth man who burst into the national tragedy.

He was Jack Ruby, 52, Dallas strip joint owner. Some said Ruby killed Oswald out of grief over the President's death. Others said the cause of his grief was fear the city's sadness would cost him holiday business.

RELATIVES ATTENDED

Only a handful of relatives watched Oswald's inexpensive coffin lowered into the grave in Fort Worth. They were his mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald; his widow, Marina, 22; his two small daughters, and his brother, Robert Oswald of Denton. They wept.

The Rev. Louis Saunders, executive secretary of the Fort Worth Council of Churches, conducted the brief services—agreeing to do so when, apparently, no other minister would for the avowed Marxist, probable atheist.

Oswald died several hours later. Here he grimaces and begins to collapse. Plainclothesman at left is J. R. LeVallie. This photo was made by Bob Jackson, staff photographer of the Dallas Times-Herald. (AP Wirephoto)

Four hundred persons—police in sharply creased uniforms behind the small family—were admitted to the small Baptist church for Tippit's funeral. Outside another 1,000 stood silently in the warm November afternoon.

LARGE TIPPETT FUNERAL

Fifteen motorcycle policemen escorted Tippit to his grave. Turning away at the end, Chief Jesse Curry said: "He was an ideal officer... a man of very fine morals."

His widow, slender, blue-eyed and brunette—with her three children—turned away at last, too.

"God, oh God!" she said.

When a recipe says "coat meat with seasoned flour" and the recipe in for stew, it's safe to use 1/4 cup flour, one teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon white pepper for two pounds of boned meat cut in two-inch pieces.

Fortune In Art Like Tomatoes

LONDON (AP) — A fortune in paintings arrived in London Monday night disguised as tomatoes.

Insurance men valued them at $10 million. Spanish galleries sent them for exhibit at the Royal Academy, beginning Dec. 7.

All the paintings are by Francisco Goya one of whose portraits of the duke of Wellington was stolen from Britain's National Gallery in 1961.

The 95 cases traveled from Spain in two railroad cars. From the outside they looked exactly like 37 others in the train, all loaded with tomatoes.

A Lovelier You

My MARY SUE MILLER

IS IT SAFE? A lovely writes: I recently decided to take the plunge and tint my hair. The tint that I selected called for a patch test. The idea leaves me skeptical. If the tint is safe to use, why should a test be necessary?

The Answer: The only thing to fear is not taking the test!

All permanent hair coloring and most semi-permanents advise a patch test before use. This does not mean a product is unsafe. Far from it!

Reputable houses widely test their products to make sure they are harmless to the large majority of people. But then there's a small allergic minority, over which, as of now, there is no determinant control. You just may be an unwary member of it.

Should you happen to be in this category, you would be highly susceptible to the known allergens in coloring products. In other words, you would prove allergic to applications and develop one or more highly unpleasant side effects. For instance, a swelling of the eyes or an irritated scalp and skin.

It follows that the product is not unsafe, but you just may be an unsafe user. And be apprised, hair colorings are not the only cosmetic that advise patch testing. In any case, when the advice is given to test, take it!

The method is simple enough. You simply saturate a piece of sterile gauze with the prescribed solution and then place the pad behind the ear or in the crook of the arm. Remove the pad after 24 hours elapsed time. If there is no irritation on the skin, you've a go-ahead signal. Otherwise, NO GO!

RULE YOUR WAVES

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting.

BEAR HUNTER KILLS FATHER ON FIRST DAY

HARRISBURG (AP) — A young Clinton County man shot and killed his father Monday in the first fatal bear hunting accident in Pennsylvania since 1958.

The accident marred the opening of the week-long black bear season. Game officials said there was a smaller turnout of hunters than usual, presumably because of the funeral of President Kennedy.

Paul Frederick Ericson, 42, of Renovo was killed instantly when shot in the side with an Italian-made, high-powered rifle from a distance of 50 yards. The incident occurred in Barge Hollow, Chatman Twp., near South Renovo.

2 OTHER ACCIDENTS

Clinton County Coroner, R. L. Bryerton said the victim was shot by his son, Paul Jr., 23, who lived with his father. A spokesman for the State Game Commission said the elder Ericson was wearing dark green clothing and no hat.

Willard T. Johns, commission information officer, said in addition to the fatal shooting, there were two non-fatal accidents, both in Pike County, but neither serious.

UNUSUAL TOLL

The number of accidents was unusual, Johns said, considering 30 per cent fewer hunters turned out compared with last year's opening day. Hunters killed 138 bears compared with 251 a year ago.

The largest bear weighed 390 pounds, Johns said. It was bagged by an unidentified Pike County hunter.

Lycoming had the largest number of bears taken—21. Clinton County was second with 20, followed by Clearfield 13, and Pike 11.

NEW YORK:—Chemical science has found a white substance made with quicksilver that works wonders on wrinkled, roughened face and hands. Use it one time and it is entirely possible you will see improvement next morning. In a few days dry-skin wrinkles start to vanish. Many of the small ones around the eyes and mouth have already disappeared. But that is not all! "Old-Age" (weathered) brown spots on hands and arms—brown "age" darkness on surface of face and neck fades away! Rich oils lubricate pores so blackheads can slip out without squeezing. Surface pimples and blemishes and scars, outwardly caused, dry up or become less noticeable! But don't take my word for it. Make a 6-day test without risking one penny. Just get a jar of Peacock's Imperial Creme at your favorite department or drug store. Use this thrilling cream for 6 days—and if you are not delighted with results, full price will be refunded. No questions asked. Peacock's Imperial Creme can work wonders for wrinkles, lines, brown spots and other weathered blemishes. You may obtain Imperial Creme for $2.00 plus tax from Rea and Derick Drugs. Clip this out.

CITY IS SHAMED BY TWO CRIMES IN 48 HOURS

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON Jr.

Associated Press Staff Writer
DALLAS (AP)—In the space of 48 hours, this sparkling metropolis—while trying desperately to show its best face to the world—was degraded twice.

The first time, authorities said, it was by a ne'er-do-well, self-styled Communist with a mail-order rifle: Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, born in New Orleans, charged with the assassination Friday of President Kennedy.

The second time, it was by a small-time, brawling strip joint owner who killed the Communist despite a police cordon: Jack Ruby, 32, born Rubinstein in Chicago, who took it upon himself to act for the courts Americans cherish and shot down Oswald Sunday.

DALLAS SHAMED

Dallas reacted with deep grief and shame to President Kennedy's death.

The reaction to Oswald's death was more complex. Some openly said the killing was a good thing. Others, secretly, thought it. But over most the weight of shame settled more heavily.

The burden of conscience became enormous. That it could happen here!

Dallas has a metropolitan population of more than one million. Its big growth came when Northern and Eastern manufacturers began moving their industrial plants to the city.

It is now a cosmopolitan city. But it is, indeed, a citadel of political conservatism at certain levels—just, as a matter of fact, as areas in New York, Philadelphia, Boston or Indianapolis.

PRAVADA COMMENTS

Pravda, Moscow's organ of the Communist party, overstated the case against Dallas: "All America knows that the most reactionary, the wildest elements . . . have built their nests precisely in Texas."

But it struck an exposed nerve.

Before the President's visit, Dallas was agonizingly conscious that only a month ago Adlai Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was struck with a far right placard and spat upon—and that the new president, Lyndon B. Johnson, and his wife had been spat upon and jostled here in the 1960 election campaign.

the people to behave, to lay aside bitterness and to welcome President Kennedy as befitted his office. The far right complied.

Then . . .
"This is a black mark Dallas will never live down," said one resident despairingly. That was the day the President died.

Sunday night . . .
"This thing is going to tear this town apart," a young woman said.

On a small grassy slope in a small park Sunday were two wreaths. A card on one said: "In memory of our beloved President, John F. Kennedy From the bereaved citizens of Dallas." The other said simply: "We are all so sorry"

CONGRESS MAY DELAY ISSUES UNTIL JANUARY

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tax reduction and civil rights, President Kennedy's top legislative proposals, appeared likely today to be temporarily sidetracked by a drive to adjourn Congress and give President Johnson a breathing spell.

The push for early adjournment was led by House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and had substantial backing from members of both parties who believe Congress should adjourn and engage in no more bickering this year. The two pending proposals are the most controversial in Congress.

MAY ADJOURN DEC. 14

Halleck's adjournment target is Dec. 14. Democratic leaders have called for continuation of the session until Jan. 3, with a Christmas recess of two weeks. Jan. 3 is the date for opening of the next session of the present Congress.

"We should expedite what we have to do and adjourn," Halleck said in an interview. "Let's give the new President time to get his feet on the ground."

The vehicle for Halleck's adjournment drive is a resolution to provide temporary financing for federal agencies whose appropriations for the present fiscal year have not been made. It is the fourth such resolution

McKeesport Will Erect JFK Statue

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A statue of the late President Kennedy will be erected in a park to be developed in nearby McKeesport, according to the city's mayor, Andrew J. Jakomas.

"The city doesn't have a statue of any kind right now," the mayor said Monday, "and I'd like this to be our first one."

He said the statue will commemorate the late president's visit to the city on Oct. 12, 1962. Cost and type of the statue were not immediately available.

Mrs. Khrushchev Pays Respects

MOSCOW (AP)—Mrs. Nina Khrushchev, wife of the Soviet premier, paid her respects to President Kennedy at the American ambassador's residence Monday and emerged with tears in her eyes.

Mrs. Khrushchev went to Spaso House at the head of a delegation of which she is chairman. She signed the memorial book on the same page as her husband, then went inside with Ambassador Foy D. Kohler and Mrs. Kohler for 15 minutes of reminiscences about her meetings with the President in Vienna.

She came out arm in arm with Mrs. Kohler, tears in her eyes, and said goodbye.

LIBERACE ILL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Liberace will remain hospitalized for about one week with an ear infection, aides of the well-known pianist say.

They said Monday Liberace will return to California for an operation after he leaves St. Francis General Hospital. He became ill Saturday night after a performance in suburban Monroeville. He was listed in satisfactory condition.

since the fiscal year started on July 1 and comes before the House Tuesday.

The new measure would provide funds for the month of December. Halleck will attempt to change the date probably to next Jan. 31 on the assumption that Congress could dispose of other necessary measures between now and Dec. 14.

Democratic leaders already have all but officially given up hope of action this year on civil rights and tax legislation but feel that Congress should remain in session as long as there is any chance for action.

FIVE VICTIMS UNIDENTIFIED

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of five of the 63 elderly patients who perished in a fire at the Golden Age Nursing home near Fitchville, 15 miles southeast of here, remained unidentified Monday as experts continued an investigation to determine the cause of the blaze.

Making his second visit to the scene of the pre-dawn fire Saturday that destroyed the one-story concrete block building, Gov. James A. Rhodes talked with local officials Sunday and pledged "an all-out, intense investigation" by the state fire marshal's office and the Ohio highway patrol.

The governor also visited Fisher-Titus Memorial Hospital in Norwalk, where five of the survivors still were confined. The last missing body was recovered from the shattered building as dozens of investigators searched the ruins for clues, with a crane and several bulldozers being used to move the heavy debris. It was identified as that of Andrew Pavulus, 77, of Cleveland.

Twenty-one patients and the three nurses on duty when the fire broke out were rescued in the nation's worst fire tragedy since 95 persons lost their lives in a Chicago fire in 1958.

SMOKES VANISH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police today were investigating the theft of a tractor-trailer containing $100,000 worth of cigars. Authorities said it was stolen on Sunday from a garage in the Kensington section.
